Freight Charges:

ShipRocket, believes in complete transparency towards our merchants and as a result we share our transfer/base rates provided to us by the logistics partner. Also to be noted is that the logistics partners change their base rate and Fuel Surcharge from time to time and any such change shall imply to your logistics charges too (the same shall be informed to you). Shiprocket is committed to provide its merchants with the best possible shipping rates and for this we are in a constant mode of negotiation with our logistics partners. Kindly go through our Service charges applicable over and above the freight charges mentioned above in the pricing section.

Rate applicable from 1st August 2016
